Castle concert raises £5,500

THE Hartlebury Castle Preservation Trust has raised £5,500 towards the purchase of the castle – with one fundraising concert.

More than 300 people attended the event which combined music from the Band of West Mercia Police with solo recitals from David Coulson, Margaret Peters, Jonathan Darby and Claire Warboys.

Mike George from BBC Hereford and Worcester hosted and was also the evening's auctioneer.

HCPT chairwoman Alison Brimelow said: "It was a truly wonderful evening, and luckily the rain held off. We'd would like to thank everyone that attended and also all of the volunteers that helped make this a successful event."

The Hartlebury Castle Preservation Trust is trying to raise £2.2 million to acquire the property. The castle will be put on the open market next year.

Ace murals at tennis club

KIDDERMINSTER Tennis Club has been awarded a National Lottery grant to decorate its practice wall with two murals.

Each side of the wall at Kidderminster Tennis Club will feature different art works, painted by two local artists, thanks to a £550 BIG Lottery Fund grant for local community projects. The BIG Lottery Fund is investing in the Horsefair, Broadwaters and Greenhill area to: "Enable people to make their communities better places to live in, now and in the future, by helping them develop the skills and confidence they need to identify priorities that matter to them and to take action to change things for the better" said Brenda Lines, chairman of the Horsefair Broadwaters and Greenhill Partnership.

The twin murals are due to be painted at the Baxter Gardens club on Saturday July 23 to coincide with the beginning of Love Your Park Week.

Billy revs up at the big summer fair

THE first Spennells summer fair proved to be a big success.

Now the event, staged at Heronswood Primary School on Sunday, is set to become an annual occasion.

It took place in the school grounds and had a pirate theme, attracting large crowds.

The major attraction, Spennells got Talent, ran throughout the day and showcased the performing ability in the school.

Performers strutted their stuff all afternoon and the eventual winner was Katie Runnalls.

All the stalls did brisk business, many selling out, with proceeds going to the school's PTA.

Traders stepping up Asda campaign

Traders in Kidderminster have vowed to step up their fight against plans for a new supermarket after claiming that their concerns have so far been ignored.

They say the proposals for a 40,000sq ft Asda and link road at the Horsefair could put them out of business.

The plans, which would create 370 jobs, have been submitted to Wyre Forest District Council following months of discussions. Shop owners were hoping Asda would take their views into account and some felt the road plans might be scrapped.

But the main elements of the proposals are still the same – including the road from the Blackwell Street roundabout to Churchfields.

Bill Sidhu, leader of the Horsefair Trading Partnership, says the current row of independent shops would be cut off by the development as traffic would be diverted onto the new carriageway.

Planning

Traders are planning to bombard the council's planning department with complaints during the consultation period.

Terry Thomas, owner of Mister Tee's Rock Stop, said: "We are disappointed that our concerns have been ignored and they haven't found an alternative that doesn't close off the Horsefair.

"We rely on passing trade. We will lose all of that."

Supermarket bosses said they wanted to support other traders and had included on-street parking.

Oliver Jones, property communications manager for Asda, said: "We have listened carefully to feedback from the local community and have incorporated many ideas to ensure there are good links between the development, the existing shops around Blackwell Street and the town centre."

Classics meet folk

ALL SAINTS' Church in Bewdley is hosting an evening of contemporary, folk and classical music from 7.30pm this Saturday , with tickets £7.50 on the door.

Bunty still so sweet at 100

A GREAT-grandmother who weighed less than a bag of sugar when she was born, and was not expected by doctors to survive, has celebrated her 100th birthday.

Dorothy "Bunty" Oldham, of Kidderminster, spent her birthday surrounded by her family and friends who dropped by to celebrate the milestone.

After spending the first part of the day eagerly waiting for her card from the Queen Mrs Oldham – best known by her nickname Bunty – was later taken to her 66-year-old son Gerrard's home where celebrations began.

She also received a telegram from Secretary of State for Work and Pensions Iain Duncan Smith.

Mrs Oldham has a 63-year-old daughter Erica Loveday, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Her husband Eric, a Birmingham osteopath, died in 1991.

Mrs Oldham was born in Ilfracombe, Devon, in 1911 to parents Francis and Florence Bacon. She was given little chance of survival when she was born and a Catholic nurse at the hospital baptised her because the odds were not good. A week after she was born she only weighed slightly more than 2lbs, less than a stone.

It was here she got her nickname of Bunty. Because of her condition every time she cried doctors and nurses would rush to her. At the time there was a West End play called Bunty Pulls the Strings, and the nickname stuck.

COMMON PROTEST JAIL RISK

A CAMPAIGNER who destroyed thousands of pounds of fencing on Hartlebury Common will risk going to jail if it means winning his protest.

Steve McCarron was ordered to pay more than £3,000 in damages and court costs after demolishing 800 metres of fencing last month.

By Sarah Hazelwood
s.hazelwood@expressandstar.co.uk

He was objecting to restoration plans for the common involving grazing.

Mr McCarron, founder of Hands off Hartlebury Common (HOHC), and members Vanessa Wright and Anthony Barnet, all appeared at Kidderminster County Court last Wednesday (July 6).

The court also granted Worcestershire County Council an injunction against the defendants until December 21 to stop them from interfering with structures on the land.

But Mr McCarron, of Station Road, has confirmed they will not be paying the costs – and will return to the site to continue their protest.

"It was obvious the court would make this decision but we have rejected the fine and have informed the police and the council that we will revisit the site this week despite the injunction," he said.

"We don't feel the proceedings gave us a fair chance to argue our case and again there was no written evidence showing the council own the land in order to legally make these changes.

"We have never done anything like this before and could lose so much but if these extreme measures are what it takes to fight for our rights then so be it – I am prepared for the consequences."

HOHC, set up four weeks ago, has gathered almost 1,000 signatures against the plans which Mr McCarron claims damage the environment and restrict public access.

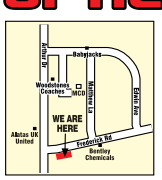

Andy Maginnis, county council countryside service manager, said: "We are pleased with this outcome that protects Hartlebury Common and ensures the taxpayer is not left to foot the bill.

"However we are disappointed we were forced to take such action to protect this special site.

"This work is supported by the overwhelming majority of local people."

The conservation body Hartlebury Common Local Group supports the council position. For more information visit the site or call The Worcestershire Hub on 01905 766493.

Hope over sell-off for TJ Hughes

ADMINISTRATORS at ailing department store chain TJ Hughes have said they are in talks with more than 30 "interested parties" looking to buy all or part of the business.

At the same time they have confirmed a retail consultancy has been appointed to advise on the sale of stock at TJ Hughes' 57 stores – including branches in Kidderminster, Lichfield, Wolverhampton and Walsall.

A string of sales will be launched to shift stock. More than 4,000 staff at the company will be pinning their hopes on a new buyer to rescue the business.

Administrators Tom Jack and Simon Allport from Ernst & Young, said that specialist consultants GA Europe had been brought in to advise on and assist with the sale of stock in TJ Hughes stores. At the same time, however, they say they are continuing to try to sell the business and its assets as a going concern.

In the swing to aid charity

JAZZ fans have the chance to enjoy a stomping good time courtesy of Wyre Forest musician Geoff Goodwin – and raise vital funds for a cancer charity.

Geoff Goodwin and His Jazz Men are tuning up for a musical treat at The Barn, The Black Boy, Kidderminster Road, Bewdley, on Friday, July 22.

The evening, from 8pm until 11pm, is being organised by the Wyre Forest committee of Cancer Research UK. Tickets are available by ringing Jean Morgan on 01562 823825.

Tickets selling fast for festival of stars

HOPES are high that this year's Bewdley Festival could be the biggest yet, with ticket sales already breaking records.

The line-up for the annual October festival has been officially unveiled with Gyles Brandreth, The Manfreds, Mark Steel, guitarist Martin Simpson, Fascinating Aida and Sir Richard Rodney Bennett among the headliners.

And although tickets are not yet on sale to the general public, the festival's launch night saw a record number of members snap up tickets.

Now in its 24th year, the festival will run from October 7-16 across a number of Bewdley venues such as the Ramada Hotel, Bewdley Baptist Church and Bewdley Museum.

In 2010 several festival records were broken including overall ticket sales, the number of events sold out and the amount of sponsors involved.

Press officer for Bewdley Festival, Carole Swingler, said they hoped they could go one better this time around. "On our launch night we sold a third more tickets than this time last year," she added.

"We're delighted with the response and think it bodes well."

Audience

Brandreth, perhaps best known for his regular appearances on BBC's The One Show, brings his An Audience With... show to the festival on Tuesday, October 11 in what is sure to prove a major draw.

Other evening highlights include Show of Hands with Miranda Sykes; Adam Henson; Dearest Nancy Darling Evelyn; Claire Martin with Sir Richard Rodney Bennett and The Alan Price Set in Concert.

Several afternoon shows, activities and workshops have also been lined up including The Max Keen Lecture, Little Jazz Mass, Tru Streetdance and Beth Williamson.

"The aim is to get a well-balanced programme to appeal to as many people as possible," Mrs Swingler added.

"I'm very pleased with everyone but particularly delighted to get such a big name as Sir Richard Rodney Bennett.

"We're very excited but as always people need to book their tickets early."

Tickets go on general sale on Saturday July 23.

They can be purchased in person at Bewdley Tourist Information Centre, on Load Street.

Alternatively write to Worcester Live at Huntingdon Hall, Crown Gate, Worcester, WR1 3LD or phone the box office on 01905 611427.

Holiday changes facing staff in economy drive

WYRE FOREST council staff may be asked to tweak their holidays at Christmas.

District councillors will be asked to approve proposals to save around £2,000 by changing staff holiday arrangements over the Christmas break, starting from Christmas 2011.

The proposal is to ask employees to take two days of their holiday entitlement at Christmas which would allow the authority to close its administrative offices.

The key services of waste collection and street cleaning would not be affected and the Worcestershire Hub at Kidderminster Town Hall would be open on normal working days during the period between Christmas Day and New Year.

However other offices would close in order to save heating and lighting costs at what is traditionally a period of very low demand for public access to other services.

The moved will be discussed by council on July 27.

The proposals come as part of ongoing savings reviews in the face of government funding for the council being reduced by £1.2 million this year.

Impact

The grant reduction increases to £2 million in 2012/13 and the council is reviewing how savings can be achieved whilst limiting the impact on frontline services.

Councillor John Campion, Leader of Wyre Forest District Council said: "Closing offices in a traditionally quiet time makes good business sense on more than one front.

Primarily this is another example of us changing processes to save money rather than cutting services."

Bags of fun for youngsters

Helen Cartwright and family from Kidderminster enjoying the day

MORE THAN 1,000 visitors turned out for a fun day for under-fives.

The event, organised by Wyre Forest District Council was a huge success in the sunshine.

At the event on June 30 in Brinton Park, Kidderminster the animals were the stars of the show with large rabbits, pigs and donkey rides being the favourite attractions. The face painting was a hit with all ages as was the samba drumming. The Big Red Party Bus offered arts and crafts workshops for all. Councillor Tracey Onslow, cabinet member for community well-being, said: "This event is a firm favourite on the family calendar."

Arrests in swoop by officers

THREE MEN have been arrested after police carried out a drug warrant at an address in Kidderminster.

The warrant was executed at the address in Severn Grove, Rifle Range, last Thursday evening. Around 50 tablets were seized, and will be subject to forensic analysis.

Three men were arrested – one on possession with intent to supply, one on possession of a controlled drug, and one on being concerned in the supply of drugs – and were in custody assisting with inquiries.

Anyone with information about suspected drug dealing within their local community is urged to contact West Mercia Police on 0300 333 3000.

Alternatively, ring free and anonymously via Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Blood service seeks donors

THE National Blood Service is appealing for volunteers to attend blood donor sessions in Kidderminster.

The sessions take place on Friday, July 22 at Trinity Methodist Church, Churchfields, Kidderminster. They run from 1.15-3.30pm and 4.30-7.15pm.

Attendance by appointment is recommended.

Councillor spurned by Tories after car case joins Labour

A WYRE FOREST councillor who was thrown out of the Tory party over driving offences has joined Labour in a move that has come under fierce attack from Conservatives.

Councillor Mumshad Ahmed was caught driving while disqualified and without insurance two years ago. He became an independent councillor on Wyre Forest District Council, but has now revealed he is joining Labour. The party's joint leader says he should be allowed to start again.

But Councillor Howard Martin, who demanded that Councillor Ahmed resign after his court case in 2009, faces claims that "great hypocrisy is at work".

After Councillor Ahmed's conviction, Councillor Martin, who was then leader of Independent Community and Health Concern, said: "I believe that if he's an honourable man, he should resign.

"We fought a whole election campaign on honesty and accountability and we believe that anybody capable of such a serious offence is holding the law in contempt."

But now Councillor Martin says Councillor Ahmed should be accepted by the party.

Clean

He said: "He has served his sentence and should be allowed to start again with a clean slate."

Conservative council leader John Campion said: "There is a great hypocrisy at work here.

"Mumshad's behaviour at the time did not meet the standards of the Conservatives, but I recognise his right to another chance.

"But Howard Martin was so damning that it seems an act of desperation to now take him into the party," he added.

Councillor Ahmed said: "I feel let down by the Conservatives, and I simply cannot support them now. I am delighted to join the Labour party, now the only party fighting for the ordinary, hard-working people across Kidderminster and Worcestershire."

Councillor Ahmed was given a 12-week jail sentence, suspended for one year, and was banned from driving for two years in June 2009.

Bike crash youth in 999 flight

A TEENAGER was flown to hospital after crashing his motor cycle and breaking a leg at a nature reserve in Bewdley.

Paramedics say the youngster was riding his bike at the site off Rifle Range Road shortly after 5pm on July 4 when he crashed into a pole.

His friends tried to carry him home but called an ambulance before they made it back.

Collided

West Midlands Ambulance Service spokesman Murray McGregor said: "The crew carried their gear for about a mile into the nature reserve.

"They were told a teenager was riding his motorbike when he lost control and collided with a metal pole."

Because of the location the paramedics requested the air ambulance from RAF Cosford.

It then took the youngster to Worcestershire Royal Hospital for treatment, said Mr McGregor.

Kapow! Batman show lands here

FOR the first time in DC Comic's history, see Batman the world's most popular DC Super Hero as you've never seen him before, in an all-new, live-action arena adventure, set to take the world by storm.

Premiering in the UK in Summer 2011, BATMAN LIVE – World Arena Tour is a multi-million pound stage production of unprecedented scale and a must-see for families and Batman fans everywhere.

And the organisers have teamed up with the Chronicle series to offer four readers the chance to win family tickets to see the show in Birmingham.

Based on an original story being created exclusively for the show, BATMAN LIVE is a theatrical extravaganza of thrilling stunts, acrobatic acts and illusions.

Never before have Gotham City, Wayne Manor, the Batcave and Arkham Asylum been brought to life on stage in a more visually exciting way.

Nemesis

Join Batman and Robin as they battle their nemesis The Joker and other super-villains such as The Riddler, Catwoman, The Penguin, Two-Face and Harley Quinn, set on destroying Gotham City.

Totally authentic, bold and awe-inspiring, BATMAN LIVE will be a completely new way to experience the world of Batman.

The tour comes to Birmingham's NIA on August 17 – 21 Tickets are priced at £20, £30 and £35 (subject to booking and transaction fees) and are available now from The Ticket Factory: The Ticket Factory: www.theticketfactory.com or 0844 338 8000.

BATMAN and all related characters and elements are trademarks and copyright of DC Comics. (s11)

HOW TO ENTER

To stand a chance of winning one of the family tickets simply answer the following question.

Which city does Batman live in?

Send your answer to Batman Competition, Chronicle editorial, 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverthampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date: Thursday, July 21. Normal conditions apply. Editor's decision is final.

Appeal for books to aid work of hospital

AN OPTICIANS in Kidderminster is appealing for donations of books to help raise funds for the Royal Orthopaedic Hospital in Birmingham.

Specsavers in Coventry Street is asking people to bring in any unwanted books, which will then be put on sale in the store. All money raised will go to the children's ward.

Earlier this year, staff presented the hospital with a cheque for £1,225. The fundraising is particularly important to Carly Finch, optical assistant at the branch, as her 13-year-old daughter Libby was born with a shortened right leg.

Libby received treatment at the Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Miss Finch said: 'We chose the hospital as our 2010 dedicated charity and we have decided to make our fundraising efforts for them ongoing."

To make a donation or purchase a book, visit Specsavers or telephone 01562 823552.

Minister boosts enterprise

From left, Mark Garnier MP, Wyre Forest District Council leader John Campion, Mark Prisk MP and Pater Pawsey (chairman of Worcestershire LEP) and Worcester MP Robin Walker

BUSINESS MINISTER Mark Prisk has visited a Stourport firm to meet the Worcestershire Enterprise Partnership.

He went to the offices of Thomas Vale in Stourport to learn more of the Local Enterprise Partnership's bid for a business enterprise zone in the Southern Kidderminster business park.

Mark Garnier has been backing the fight, and welcomed the recent unanimous decision of the LEP board for Kidderminster to be the favoured bid for Worcestershire.

Mr Garnier led an adjournment debate in the House of Commons chamber to promote what he described as Kidderminster's excellent proposal.

"The outcome of the next few weeks is crucial," he said after the meeting. "Securing one of the 10 available business enterprise zones in Kidderminster will potentially bring nearly 4,000 new jobs to our district.

"I believe we have a seriously good bid. We have vacant industrial space ready for businesses to move into immediately; we have space available for modernisation; and we have over 100 acres of brownfield site available for redevelopment."

Purse thieves target elderly

PURSE thieves are targeting pensioners in Kidderminster, say police.

Officers say three thefts and an attempted theft were reported on July 6 – with three of them in Morrisons, Green Street.

A 68-year-old man was in the supermarket between 10am and 11am when he became aware of another man who was very close to him, and realised that his wallet containing £25 had been stolen. He challenged the man, who walked off without saying anything. The second incident happened between 10.30am and 11am when a 75-year-old woman's purse, containing £33, was stolen from her bag.

In the third attack, also between 10.30am and 11am, involved an 80-year-old man who briefly put his wallet down at the checkout.

He left the store but went back five minutes later to find it gone. It contained £60 cash, bank cards and various photographs.

Elsewhere, a 78-year-old woman was in the B&M store in the Swan Centre at about 10.30am when a man asked her a question about the sweets on display.

She briefly turned to look at them, and when she looked back, she saw the man with his hand in her handbag, holding her purse. She snatched the purse back, pushed him and shouted "thief", causing the man to run off empty-handed.

Crime prevention adviser Peter Aston of West Mercia Police said: "Purse and wallet thefts can happen anywhere. Sometimes they happen in charity and card shops, while at other times supermarkets are targeted."

Federation of Small Businesses
The UK's Leading Business Organisation

Did you support your local town on Independent's Day?

By Judi Brazkiewicz, Chairman for FSB Worcestershire

July 4th was the ideal opportunity for the hundreds of local independent shops to celebrate the role of the independent business in our town centres.

Independent's Day is held once a year and attracts huge interest in market towns, small cities and large villages across the UK.

Did you play your part?

The organisers hoped that every single one of us would make the effort to shop for at least one item from a local retailer.

And it's an effort isn't it it - the lure of the large supermarket or DIY store, park the car right next to the entrance, free of charge of course, and then stroll around the aisles gazing and grazing on the wonderful goods laid out before us.

But hold on. . .

Isn't that almost exactly what is on offer from our town centres, apart from the free car parking of course! The next time you visit your local town treat it like the best department store you have ever visited. We can find everything we need in our local town, but we have to make a bit of an effort and stroll around the place, meeting people along the way, possibly enjoying a cup of coffee as we go, which is served in a crockery cup by somebody who really does appreciate our business.

We all have our part to play

The large stores are only doing what they have to in order to survive. Also, many of us have investments and pensions which rely on these large organisations making sustainable profits which give us a decent return on our money. Finally, some of the local large shops, where possible, actually do buy from local suppliers, so they can play a part in securing the future of the local supply chain.

It's all about balance

Tip the scales in either direction and we are left with limited choice. If we keep the balance between some big store names alongside the local niche market shops we shall find ourselves on the road to a sustainable retailing future.

If we all use the internet for everything we need we shall see our shops closing almost overnight. If we only use out of town retailing, we shall see our town centres gradually empty of all but the most hardy of retailers and if we use only large supermarkets and department stores our choices will be limited to the lines they think we want.

I have a role to play in this, we all do. Let's show the rest of the UK how it's done!

Business owners interested in the FSB's Keep Trade Local Campaign, or its member benefits, may visit www.fsb.org.uk or phone 01386 750032 for more information.

Motorists thanked after delay

MOTORISTS in Kidderminster have been thanked for their patience during resurfacing work.

The message comes from Worcestershire County Council's highways team after a delay to work on the A451 Stourbridge Road.

Essential work at the Horsefair added time to drivers' journeys.

A temporary traffic light system was put in place to help manage traffic and works, which got under way on Monday July 4.

They ran from 9.30am to 4.30pm each day and were scheduled to finish on Sunday July 10.

Sewer

But a collapsed sewer was discovered, which put back the work.

Severn Trent worked over the weekend to repair the sewer.

A Worcestershire Highways spokeswoman said: "The works taking place are currently adding a bit of time to people's journey's and, as ever, we'd like to thank drivers for their patience until their completion."

Road resurfacing took place on Monday and the stretch was eventually opened to traffic later.

Silver success for garden centre

Paul Cook, owner of Cook's Garden Centre, is blooming with happiness after carrying off one of the top awards at the Hampton Court Palace Flower Show

Cook's Garden Centre, in Worcester Road, has exhibited at the Royal Horticultural Society's Hampton Court Palace Flower Show for the last 15 years.

Paul Cook, the 53-year-old owner of the centre, said: "We've won an award virtually every year – and are very please to have done so again. We are keeping up our tradition." Cook's display of hanging baskets and patio plants – including new specimens such as euphorbia breathless and black velvet petunias – earned a "Silver Flora" award at the current show.

Key talks on green spaces

MEETINGS are under way between Wyre Forest District Council and local Friends groups to discuss how local parks and green spaces can be developed jointly into the future.

The friends of Brinton Park, Baxter Gardens, Springfield Park, Broadwaters and St Georges Park, all in Kidderminster, have been contacted by the council to discuss what they want to see in their parks and what they can deliver.

The completed documents will become 10-year development plans for the parks. Councillor Tracey Onslow Wyre Forest District Council's Cabinet Member for Community Well-being said: "Wyre Forest District Council has had good working partnerships for several years now with a number of the groups. So, with the support of new government legislation in the form of Big Society, Community Friends Groups can now experience even more support and commitment."

MPs rack up £38,000 expenses in a month

MPs across the West Midlands and Staffordshire claimed around £38,000 in expenses in just a single month, it has been revealed.

Nationally, 17,500 claims were submitted for March, totalling more than £2.1million.

Some 35 MPs were refused a total of £625.62 by officials at the Independent Parliamentary Standards Authority. Details for second home, travel, office and staff costs were unveiled by Parliament's new expenses watchdog.

Its website shows the latest tranche of payments approved by the body set up to enforce tighter rules on MPs' use of taxpayers' cash in the wake of the 2009 scandal.

Dudley North MP Ian Austin claimed £145 for a TV licence. West Bromwich West MP Adrian Bailey claimed £59.88 for a phone bill and Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley £20 for a taxi bill home after a late Commons sitting. Chris Kelly, MP for Dudley South, claimed £75.20 on food and drink, while Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy made a claim of £6.30 rung up by an office intern.

Wolverhampton South East MP Pat McFadden claimed £36 for the cost of hiring a venue for an advice surgery and Wolverhampton North East MP Emma Reynolds £144 for the hire of a photocopier.

Valerie Vaz, MP for Walsall South, claimed £70 on the installation of electrical sockets.

Most claims by MPs were for accommodation and constituency office costs, plus travel expenses. Stourbridge MP Margot James, Aldridge and Brownhills MP Richard Shepherd and West Bromwich East Tom Watson received no expenses payments for the month.

Mark Garnier

Conservative, Wyre Forest

Amount claimed March: £2,341.29

Claims included: £1,560 accommodation rent, £106.73 and £211.14 stationery purchases for constituency office

Total for year since April 2010: £37,352.40

Dark tale of historic espionage

A DARK tale of espionage at an historic foundry will be the subject of a talk in Kidderminster next week.

Mary Bodfish will talk on "Skulduggery at a Soho Foundry" when she appears as guest speaker at the annual general meeting of the Wyre Forest Historical Research Group.

It takes place at Kidderminster Library on Monday 18th July, starting at 2pm. Chairman Gay Hill said: "We are pleased and privileged to welcome Mary Bodfish, chairman of Smethwick Local History Society.

"The foundry was built by Matthew Boulton and James Watt, partners of the Soho Manufactory in Handsworth, Birmingham, because of their need for a reliable source of power for the factory. Opened in 1795, Matthew Boulton invoked the gods of fire and water in the naming of the site.

"The two partners, however, were not above industrial espionage, spying on their competitors, a not uncommon occurrence at the time." For further information telephone Gay Hill on 01562 746370.

Call for photos of common

AN APPEAL for photographs and information on Pound Green Common has been launched by the Friends of Bewdley Museum.

They are in the final stages putting together their 2011 exhibition.

Guided evening strolls on meadows by the riverside

RESIDENTS have the opportunity to take a guided evening stroll across fields and riverside meadows on a free, four-mile walk between the Walshes in Stourport and Hampstall Inn.

The Walshes Walk takes place on Tuesday starting at 6.30pm from the Walshes Community Centre, Hermitage Way, and will cover the two miles to Hampstall Inn where participants can enjoy a special deal of a pint and a burger or hotdog for £4.50. The walk will arrive back in Stourport by about 9.30pm.

The walk forms part of a series led by staff and volunteer Parish Paths Wardens. Contact Amanda Hill for information about the walk on 01905 768245.

Super sports fun for pupils

IT WAS all go at a Stourport primary school as pupils went sport crazy – trying out different activities in a total of 75 sessions.

The 250 children at St Bartholomew's Church of England Primary in Princess Way threw themselves into their sports week with great gusto.

Among scores of activities they have tried out are basketball, tennis, badminton, swimming, ballet, Tae Kwon Do, orienteering, golf, zumba, cricket and football.

Mrs Annabelle Perry, the school's PE coordinator, said: "School isn't all about being academic and I was keen for the children to have an opportunity to try out new sports. Sport is healthy for them and good to teach them discipline." Fifteen different sports sessions were organised each day.

St Bartholomew's also linked up with Stourport High School, which hosted some of the activities.

Closure of meal service at homes

A HOT FOOD service offering daily hot meals to residents at 10 care homes across Wyre Forest will be axed this month.

The Cooking Pot Dining Service, which is run by Wyre Forest Community Housing Trust, will end on July 31.

The service provides people over the age of 50 who are retired or disabled and unable to cook for themselves with a hot meal and dessert for just £3.50.

Kidderminster's Arch Hill Court, Carter Court, Neville Court, Adams House, Purcell House, Ruth Chamberlain Court and the Fred Bennett Centre will all lose the service.

Forward

So too will Bewdley's Hornbeam House, Stourport's Broomy Close and William Bullock Close Homes and Drumart House in Cookley.

Worcestershire County Council spokeswoman Kirsty Crawley said council officers were liaising with the Wyre Forest Community Housing Trust to find a way forward for the meals services.

"We will ensure that any service user affected by withdrawal of the meal service will be given the opportunity to request an assessment for eligibility to access the Community Meals Service," she said.

"This is in line with our statutory responsibilities to ensure all service users who meet our eligibility criteria are given access to a meal service."

Final day for visits to garden

SUNDAY is the last chance this year for local residents to visit a small but developing Bewdley garden open under the National Garden Scheme (NGS).

Toll House Cottage garden, in Stourport Road, Bewdley, was only started in 2008 but now has an informal collection of herbaceous and shrubs around a lawn with developing mini arboretum and grass walks, vegetable patch and natural pond with beach for wild life.

There will also be a painting and woodturning studio open for viewing.

The garden will be open from 11 am until 5.30 pm and admission is £3 (children free).

Kanye West and host of stars for The Big Chill

Tom Rowlands of The Chemical Brothers on stage

THE Big Chill is set to hit this summer, bringing with it a host of A-list celebrities.

Kanye West, The Chemical Brothers and Rodrigo y Gabriela are all set headline The Big Chill festival in Ledbury, Herefordshire.

Other acts to take to the stage include Example, Calvin Harris, Aloe Black and Katy B.

But if you are looking for something a little different, the entertainment line-ups for The Little Chill, Enchanted Garden and Therapy and Chill have just been revealed.

The Little Chill is a festival within a festival, and is only open to festival goers who have specifically purchased a family ticket.

It features lots of entertainment for younger audiences including a magician, clown, illustrators and authors and drama and dance workshops.

Little Chill audiences can also test their skills in a special circus area featuring stilt walking, unicycling, juggling shows and workshops.

Dancers

The Enchanted Garden is a secluded area playing host to performances from musicians, trapeze artists, acrobats and fire dancers.

Its birdcage stage features performances from eclectic bands through the day and cabaret in the evening. Its Coyote Moon venue doubles up as both a sauna and a performance yurt, with artists performing both day and night.

The Therapy and Chill field will see indulgent treatments such as facials, foot soaks and hair styling on offer .

Pressure point treatments such as reflexology, aromatherapy and reiki will also be available.

Bikers' major venue closes its restaurant

A LANDMARK venue that attracts hundreds of bikers from across the Midlands to weekly theme nights has been forced to close its restaurant, axe 10 staff and cut its bar opening hours.

Swancote Country Club has become reliant on functions and its biker nights, which see up to 1,000 people from all over the region descendon the premises near Bridgnorth.

The venue, which also hosts weddings and parties. is set in 45 acres of grounds off the A454.

Under its cost-cutting measures, it has had to cut catering, kitchen and bar jobs after takings slumped.

The 60-cover restaurant is out of use, and the bar guarantees to be open on Wednesdays and Fridays only as owner Steve Platt battles to balance the books.

Function rooms catering for more than 250 people are keeping the business going, while there is also an outdoor heated pool and 24-hour gym.

Rented

Mr Platt said: "The restaurant is closed at the moment.

"We had rented it out to someone last summer but they were not making money and they pulled out.

"Apart from the two nights, the bar is only open if we get busy – there's no point if there's only a handful of people.

"We have got to pay the staff and the running costs, and it's not worth it."

Takings from biker nights on Wednesdays and Fridays have dropped alarmingly, Mr Platt added.

Fractured skull after punching

A MAN suffered a fractured skull in an early morning attack in Kidderminster.

It happened outside Aldi in Green Street between around 2am and 2.40am last Friday.

The victim, a 20-year-old man, was punched in the face.

He fell backwards, hitting his head on the ground, said police.

The victim was taken to the Worcestershire Royal Hospital at Worcester for treatment.

Although his injuries were initially not thought to be serious, he was later discovered to have a fractured skull. He was in a stable condition in the hospital.

A man has been arrested on suspicion of assault occasioning grievous bodily harm with intent.

The man was bailed until August 8 pending further inquiries by police.

Care home staff win award for their work

STAFF from a Stourport care home have won an award for improving dementia care. They attended an event at County Hall to collect the honour.

Anastasia Meredith, manager of Sanctuary Care's Ravenhurst Care Home, and her deputy manager Mary Grannell received the "improving the quality of dementia care" award on July 6 from Worcestershire County Council's director of adult and community services, Eddie Clarke.

The accolade also comes with a grant worth £7,500 which will be reinvested into the Lickhill Road North home to further develop and improve their dementia care service.

The planned improvements to the home include the creation of an outdoor environment inside, transforming one of the lounges into a pub, and a sensory room which includes a farmhouse dining experience.

WEATHER UPDATE

CLOUD and outbreaks of rain are on the horizon today and tomorrow. But temperatures will be around normal and winds light.

Into the weekend and beyond and it's likely to be the customary British mixture of sunshine and showers intermingled, but with the wetter and windier weather gradually holding sway.

Below-par temperatures will be exacerbated by stronger winds.

Teenager beaten in phone grab

A GANG of yobs punched a teenager in Kidderminster before stealing his camouflage bag and mobile phone.

It happened in Parry Road, with the junction of Sutton Park Road, at around 11.30pm last Friday.

The victim, a 14-year-old boy, was walking along and using his mobile phone to text when he was attacked by three older youths.

One grabbed him around the neck, and at least one of the other two punched him several times to the face and head.

It is believed they also stole his Bench brown and black camouflage bag worth £40 and his red Sony Ericsson mobile phone worth £150. The victim sustained a bleeding nose and swollen and bruised eye.

The thugs are described as white, and aged about 17.

The first one was 5ft 6ins tall, of medium build, and wearing a light grey hoody, and gloves. The second one was about 5ft 10ins tall, of medium build, and wearing a black top. The third one was slim, and wearing a black hoody.

Witnesses or anyone with information are asked to contact West Mercia Police on 0300 333 3000.

Dazzling artwork at big exhibition

THE Hartlebury Art Group is to stage its annual exhibition of paintings, needlecraft and sculpture this month.

Many pieces in the exhibition will be on sale. Some of the work depicts local scenes.

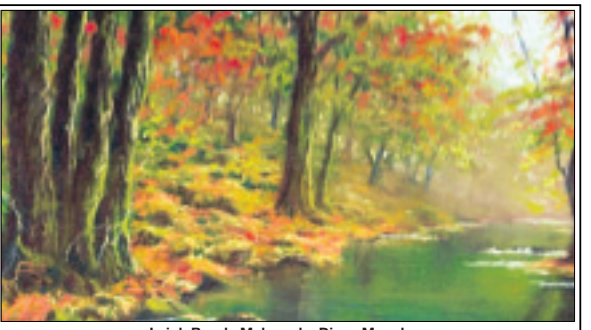

A donation from the exhibition will be given to Mercia Accident and Rescue Service, a local service funded entirely by charitable donations.

Profits from their new calendar which will go on sale in the autumn will also be donated to the accident and rescue service.

The exhibition will take place on July 23 from 11am to 4pm at Hartlebury Village Hall. Admission is free and refreshments are available.

Villagers speak out on changes to High Street

LETTERS and e-mails have been flooding into a parish council after residents were invited to give their views on controversial changes to a village's historic High Street.

Kinver Parish Council said there had been a "constant and steady stream" of opinions sent in over the past few weeks and more were expected.

The council has asked Staffordshire County Council to carry out a review of the changes following complaints the work has made the road more dangerous now than before.

Businesses also say trade in the village has plummeted since the £900,000 scheme was completed earlier this year.

The review is to take place later in the year and the parish council asked residents and traders to submit their views which will be presented to the county council.

Parish Council clerk Jenny Spaull said there had already been a high level of interest from the community.

The exact number of views submitted had not yet been counted. "A count will take place, probably in August closer to when the review is expected," she said.

Stream

"There has been a constant and steady stream of correspondence received so far. At the moment all correspondence received on this is being placed in a file so it can be fully analysed at a later date.

"We want to have more views submitted before we start working on the document," she added.

Among the commments already received are complaints from residents and traders that traffic queues are being caused because of pinch points along the High Street. Send comments to the council at 95, High Street, Kinver, DY7 6HD, until August 26.

Music for free as bands hot up the summer in parks

A WEALTH of free musical entertainment is on offer at Wyre Forest parks this summer.

Wyre Forest District Council is again staging its annual summer programme of Sunday afternoon concerts.

They take place during July and August, starting this weekend, and visitors are invited to take a deckchair or picnic rug and a picnic and enjoy a great range of music at local venues.

This year's programme involves a total of 14 concerts taking place across the district, with music styles including 60s, jazz and rock.

There are new acts for the programme, including local solo artist, Daniel Seth. He is performing pop classics at Bewdley. Soultown is also new, and local artists are performing Soul & Motown at Brinton Park. There are also return visits from concert favourites like Kidderminster Male Voice Choir who complete the Bewdley programme on August 28.

The entertainment starts on July 17 with Alveley Village Band at Brinton Park, entertainment then continues at the Park every Sunday until August 28 (except August 21). The Brinton Park concerts take place between 2.30 pm and 4.30 pm.

At QEII Jubilee Gardens at Bewdley the music starts on Sunday, July 31. The Exiles perform 'Contemporary Folk with a Celtic Flavour' between 2pm and 4pm. Bewdley concerts then continue every Sunday at the same time until August 28.

Stourport Riverside hosts three concerts on consecutive Sundays – the programme starts on Sunday, July 31 with Arthur Brown Jazz. Stourport then takes on a Wild West theme on August 20 and 21 with the annual Country & Western Festival. For more information visit the events section on the website www.wyreforestdc.gov.uk

Training date for the 999 heroes

EMERGENCY services are to descend on an industrial estate near Kidderminster for a training exercise at the weekend.

A multi-agency exercise will take place at the Potter Group Site 7 Rushock Trading Estate on Sunday.

The Fire & Rescue Service and Ambulance Service will be testing their equipment and working practices together, so passers-by are being reassured that there is no cause for alarm.

Emergency services exercises are a responsibility of the county council's emergency planning unit. The trading estate is on the A442 between Kidderminster and Droitwich Spa.

Everyone loves a royal wedding.
A time for celebration, feasts and street parties for all!

Cameron Mackintosh's new hit British musical BETTY BLUE EYES has just opened to rave reviews in London's glittering West End. It's 1947 and excitement is growing as the good folk of Shepardsford, Yorkshire prepare to celebrate the forthcoming Royal Wedding of Princess Elizabeth to Philip Mountbatten. Determined to defy strict rationing measures and mark the special occasion accordingly, members of the town's Council are fattening up a highly illegal pig called Betty for a lavish banquet in honour of the royal couple. Rejected by the town for being nobodies, Gilbert and his social climbing wife Joyce resolve to steal the pig – but will it save Betty's bacon? Sarah Lancashire and Reece Shearsmith lead a marvellous cast including, Olivier Award winners Adrian Scarborough and David Bamber and, of course, Betty as herself.

See Betty Blue Eyes on one of these great value options:

Straight out of a period novel – guests arrive by horse and carriage outside Himley Hall

Thank you guests, your carriage awaits

Prom king and queen Mitchell Houlston and Emily Walters

GUESTS from Holly Hall School in Dudley rolled up in style to their Year 11 prom.

Four arrived by horse and carriage for the night's entertainment at Himley Hall.

They waved regally at admiring motorists on their way.

Pure style: Justine Ferrera, Ellie Ledgester, Jane Sinclair, Delesia Rattray, Iman Espeut-Mills and Amber Williams

It's a Humm-dinger of a way to roll up for the school prom

BRINGING a touch of glitz and glamour to their school proms, these youngsters certainly look the part in their posh frocks and smart suits.

Students from Summerhill School in Kingswinford enjoyed a night out at Blakelands Country House near Wolverhampton.

Sporting pink, blue and green dresses were friends Jessica Frost, Lauren Smith, Ammie Easthope, Emma Rowland and Georgina Holt.

Hummer

And striking a pose in blue dresses were Alex Hicklin with her school friends Lucy Bayford, Sally Ovenall and Bethen Nutting.

Another group of friends from the school arrived in style – pulling up this time in a black, stretch Hummer.

Matt Markman, Harris Priest, Sam Smith, Harry Shaw, Jack Austin, John Hill, George Bedford, Billy Payne, Dan Akarca and Jacob Shilvock all looked smart in their tuxedos and suits.

The Year 11 students went to their prom to mark the end of their school career.

Canoeists Richard Fell, 31, front, and Dave Atkins, 35, training for their adventure on West Midland canals

Pair locked in for canal challenge

ADVENTURERS Richard Fell and Dave Atkins are preparing to canoe 212 miles of the West Midlands canal network for charity.

The duo have worked out a route that will take them from their home town of Walsall through several towns including Stourport, Worcester, Wolverhampton and Tamworth.

The challenge, for the Acorns Children's Hospice, will start at the Walsall Canal Basin and is expected to take nine days.

The intrepid pair will have 209 locks to negotiate.

Electrician Richard, aged 31, of Persehouse Street, and council officer Dave, 35, of Cherry Tree Avenue, both Walsall, have already raised £800 but still have a long way to go to hit their £4,000 target.

They start the challenge on August 6. To donate go to: www.justgiving.com/slowwayround

Plea over Lottery cash to buy castle is hit by a delay

A TRUST battling to raise £2.5million to buy a historic castle has delayed submitting a vital funding application to carry out more work on the bid, it has been revealed.

Hartlebury Castle Preservation Trust is working to raise the cash to buy the building and grounds from the Church of England to ensure it stays open to the public.

The trust had planned to submit the first-stage bid for Heritage Lottery Fund cash last month but decided on the delay after asking experts to look over the document.

It was decided more work was needed to polish the bid and give it a better chance of success.

The trust now plans to submit the bid by July 31. This will still meet a deadline for the group to hear if the application has been successful by September.

If the first-stage bid is successful, a second more detailed application will be sent. The trust would hear if this was successful by next March – just a month before the historic castle is set to go on the market.

Members want to turn the castle into an education centre and expand Worcestershire County Museum which is based at the site.

Training rooms and a business centre would also be created as part of the plans.

Bulk

A six-figure sum has already been raised through events and donations but the bulk of the money is to come from the fund.

Trustee Amanda Price said: "We decided to hold fire on the bid for a month after experts took a look at the bid and highlighted areas which could be strengthened."

The castle was deemed surplus to requirements by the Church of England more than a year ago and the trust was originally given an exclusive option to buy it.

The castle was formerly the official home of the Bishop of Worcester.

But talks broke down after the castle trust complained that the £2.5m asking price and conditions attached by the church were unrealistic. Instead, church officials decided to put it on the open market but gave the trust extra time to try to raise the money.

Woman fined for pet ban breach

A GRANDMOTHER who was banned for life from keeping animals was found looking after cats at her home, a court heard.

Adelina Dipaola, aged 48, was caring for two adult cats and two eight month old kittens, Kidderminster magistrates were told.

Dipaola had received the life ban on March 19, 1999, for causing unnecessary suffering to her two-year-old crossbred bitch Saiba.

Dipaola, of Lorne Street, Kidderminster, pleaded guilty on June 30 to breaching a disqualification imposed after conviction.

Chairman of the bench, Mr Colin Emery, fined Dipaola £100 and ordered her to pay £250 court costs with a £15 victim surcharge.

Original

Mr Nick Sutton, prosecuting on behalf of the RSPCA, said inspectors had made inquiries on April 12 with neighbours who claimed Dipaola was keeping cats.

"There were no issues with the condition of the cats," he said.

Mr Sutton said Dipaola claimed she thought the order only banned her from keeping dogs. He said the original order was made after her dog was found dead at her property. There were signs it had suffered from starvation.

Mr Fergus Maxwell, defending, said his client had started to care for the stray cats by leaving her back door open.

The cats never stayed overnight and the kittens had been born in an outbuilding, Mr Maxwell said.

Rotary president in year of fund success

Bewdley Rotary president Terry Garbett hands over to his successor Derrick Bumpsteed. Picture: Colin Hill

THE Bewdley Rotary Club president handed over to his successor last week after completing a record breaking year.

Terry Garbett's 12 months as president have seen the club raise a record £15,017 for Rotary causes.

The money came from various activities throughout the year such as quiz nights, entertainment evenings and even ferret racing.

The biggest fundraiser was the Macmillan Centenary Proms concert at the Ramada Hotel, Bewdley, which brought in over £7,700 for the cancer charity.

Mr Garbett said: "It's through the generosity of local people that we managed to raise this much – they are the ones who helped make this happen." The money is being used for various causes locally and nationally.

Mr Garbett added: "We give money to local, national and international charities. We like to fund projects rather than just donate money."

Loads of odes to the local pubs

DRINKERS in Wyre Forest must work fast to pen an ode to their favourite pub. Budding poets should set down a maximum of six lines of lyrics to their local by tomorrow. The winner will get 12 bottles of Worcestershire Way beer. The competition has been organised by the Kidderminster-based Brewers Troupe group. Entries to: info@brewerstroupe.co.uk, or Arts Development, Wyre Forest District Council, Freepost Mid 23694, Green Street, Kidderminster DY10 1BR.

Final chapter of Harry Potter wizardry

HE is the boy wizard who revitalised the book business, boosted the British film industry and even conquered Hollywood, and tomorrow night the world-wide phenomenon that is Harry Potter will reach its epic conclusion.

Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part II, which opens worldwide on Friday, July 15, is the eighth and last in the record-smashing film franchise adapted from JK Rowling's seven novels about a boy wizard.

And when author and the three stars – Daniel Radcliffe, Rupert Grint and Emma Watson – stepped on to the red carpet in London for the premiere last week, they were entitled to feel both triumphant and poignant.

Hollywood studio Warner Bros took over Trafalgar Square for the red carpet premiere, making space for the anticipated crowds of fans young and old dressed in Harry Potter costumes.

Anticipation

The seven movies released so far, which began with Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone in 2001, have grossed £3.9 billion at the box office.

Although the figures hide a steady decline in admissions – the first film is still the most successful – experts predict that the combination of higher 3D ticket prices and anticipation surrounding the final chapter could see Deathly Hallows 2 break records.

The Harry Potter series has made its three main child stars among the most recognisable faces in the world – as well as making them rich beyond dreams.

When the trio – Daniel Radcliffe, Emma Watson and Rupert Grint – were paraded before the world's cameras almost 11 years ago after an exhaustive casting process, they were fresh-faced unknowns.

Emma Watson and Julie Walters on the red carpet last Thursday for the London premiere of the final Harry Potter movie

But now, just into their early 20s, they have a lengthy cinema career – and a combined wealth estimated at almost £100 million.

Radcliffe – who will be 22 on July 23 – has generated the most cash from his titular role as the hero According to the Sunday Times Rich List the young actor is worth £48 million, ranking him fifth in the list of British millionaires under 30.

He had already had some on-screen experience by the time he landed the prized role as Harry, after appearing in BBC1's adaptation of David Copperfield and making his movie debut in John Boorman's film The Tailor Of Panama, alongside Pierce Brosnan.

Like his co-stars, viewers have seen Radcliffe grow up before their eyes with each instalment of the wizarding adventures. They have also seen him head off in surprising directions, aside from his Potter commitments. Most famously, these included his nude on-stage role in Equus in London's West End and on Broadway in New York. He also appeared this year in the Broadway revival of How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying. Next year he will be seen in his first screen role since he finished the Potter films as a haunted solicitor when The Woman In Black – made by the revived Hammer Film company – is released.

In an interview recently, he said the trappings of wealth and fame were not really for him and that he had given up drinking after saying he had become "reliant" on alcohol.

In contrast to Radcliffe's early screen experience, Emma Watson had only performed in school plays before landing her role as Hermione Granger. She was just nine years old when she was cast in the role which has contributed to a fortune reckoned to be worth £24 million.

Her elegant looks and poise have also led to modelling contracts including a stint for Burberry and she appeared in ads for Lancome earlier this year.

The grounded star went to university in the US in 2009 but announced she was leaving earlier this year. It is thought she will resume her studies at Oxford in the autumn.

Rupert Grint, who has played Ron Weasley throughout the series, is also estimated to be worth £24 million. The 22-year-old has used his wealth to indulge himself in a collection of quirky vehicles which have included a Mr Whippy ice cream van, a bubble car and a Ford Anglia.

Like Watson, Grint had no previous screen experience before applying for the role – which he heard about on BBC1's Newsround. He appeared in his first non-Potter role just a year after the first film was released, starring in children's comedy Thunderpants in 2002. Then in 2006 he appeared alongside his screen mother from Harry Potter, Smethwick-raised actress Julie Walters, in the poignant drama-comedy Driving Lesssons.

Now their post-Potter careers really get under way.

Harry Potter facts

Around 450 million copies of J K Rowling's books have been sold in 200 territories worldwide. They have been translated into 70 languages.

The previous seven Harry Potter films have grossed $6.4 billion to date – around £4 billion at today's exchange rate.

The previous Potter film, Deathly Hallows Pt 1, took £18.32 million in its first three days, the biggest opening weekend of all time.

During the making of the films, a total of 600 school uniforms have been made for pupils at Hogwarts. Leading man Daniel Radcliffe and his various stunt doubles have had Harry Potter's trademark scar on the head painted 5,800 times.

Radcliffe has worn 160 pairs of glasses during filming, and carried 70 wands.

A total of 588 different sets have been created for for the films.

The Great Hall set is big enough to hold 22 London double-decker buses

A total of 250 differnet animals have been used during filming.

Around 1.7 million watched J K Rowling broadcast on the new pottermore.com website, which was launched last week. The site was visited by people from 214 countries during launch week.

CASUALTY
BBC1, 9pm

Fawlty Towers star Andrew Sachs appears in the hospital drama tonight, playing Mendel, who along with his wife Rachel (former EastEnders star Anita Dobson) runs a pharmacy. Unfortunately for the couple, they are being terrorised by a local heroin addict who is desperate for fixes. One day, when the addict comes into the chemist for methadone, Mendel stands up to him and is stabbed for his troubles. So, deciding enough is enough, Rachel adds a mysterious substance to the methadone, with unforeseen consequences. Meanwhile, Mads is still living in fear of her attacker, Ash, who has stepped up his threatening behaviour to another level. Can Lenny persuade her to go to the police?

A PLACE IN THE SUN: HOME OR AWAY

Channel 4, 7pm

Jasmine Harman and Jonnie Irwin come to aid of Royal Navy Officers Sarah Johns and Steve Krosnar-Clarke who are feeling the stresses and strains of juggling busy careers as well as finding quality time to spend together, as either of them could be called abroad at only a moment's notice. The currently live on a military base in Swindon, but are keen to bag themselves a holiday home so they can have somewhere of their own to escape to. The big decision, though, is where do they settle – the Cornish coast or in the mountains of northern Italy?

Honda's prototype puts zing into eco-motoring

By Matt Joy

IF THERE'S one small problem with the green revolution occurring in the motoring world, it's that excitement and enthusiasm feature quite low on the priority list.

Understandably, of course, headline figures of carbon dioxide emissions and combined cycle miles-per-gallon are what everyone is interested in. But if you happen to be a keen driver and a keen greenie too, compromise is your only option.

That was until Honda introduced the CR-Z, the first proper attempt at building a hybrid sports car, and it does a fine job too considering that fuel efficiency and performance are almost mutually exclusive. By Honda's own admission, it was more about feel than outright punch; the lightweight body of the CR-Z made it agile and fun while the brisk performance meant it could still hit over 50mpg.

Now Honda has had a go at pushing the CR-Z as far as it will go thanks to the independent Mugen division.

Capable

This company has a long association with Honda, particularly in motorsports, but its most recent effort was the fantastically capable Mugen Civic Type-R, and a similar approach has been adopted for the CR-Z.

Many of the parts on this one-off example are from the Mugen shelf – the uprated suspension is near race-specification, as are the mighty brakes and delicious forged alloy wheels.

It also receives a major visual fillip with a Mugen-design body kit, with a deeper front bumper, side skirts and a huge rear wing which looks much better in the flesh than you might think. Get on the phone or the internet and you could have your standard CR-Z converted to this specification for around £8,000.

But the real hard work has been done in the engine room.

By adding a supercharger to the 1.5-litre petrol motor Mugen has boosted the power output by over 60 per cent to 197bhp while the already generous torque figure is up by 23 per cent to 215lb.ft.

Those are good figures for a hot hatch, but the Mugen CR-Z weighs a slight 1,080kg.

Once installed in the close-fitting bucket seats, firing up the CR-Z brings a racing car-like rasp from the exhaust – something which would certainly be toned down a little in a production version.

Just like the standard car there are three driving modes, but the Sport mode is replaced with Mugen mode and brings with it full access to the extra power.

However, set off in Eco mode and aside from the much stiffer suspension and hilariously unruly racket which comes from the exhaust, there's very little to distinguish it from the regular car.

It will potter along happily, sipping fuel and encouraging you to be thrifty, with the green monitor in the smart instrument display awarding you 'leaves' on your digital tree for consistent eco driving.

Because of its prototype status, the official figures have not been calculated, but Honda's tests reveal that 50mpg is still perfectly possible – no compromises on that front then.

But five minutes in Eco mode is enough to confirm that it still works; instead you need to punch the Mugen button and find out what it really can do.

Honda had kindly laid on some track time at Rockingham Motor Speedway, and it was the perfect venue to explore its full capabilities.

Quickest

Although race circuits have a habit of masking the true performance of even the quickest cars, the response and the consistent acceleration of the CR-Z Mugen is a real pleasure.

The slick gearchange helps to keep the engine singing and it revs right around to 7,000rpm with ease.

Perhaps even more impressive is the handling and grip, allowing it to swoop through bends ever more quickly and instilling huge confidence in the driver.

Add in the unshakable brakes that stood up to dozens of hot laps without complaint, and you have a remarkably entertaining package for a car with proper eco credentials.

So where's the catch? Well, the truth is you can't go and buy this car, yet.

This prototype is a one-off, and because of all the development work that went into it, it is effectively worth £150,000.

And although Honda firmly says there are no plans for production, they added the caveat that they will listen to customer feedback before making any further steps.

That means it's down to you. If you like the idea of having a modern, stylish and innovative coupe that costs pennies to run but will still attack a twisty back road with glee, you need to get down to your Honda dealer and start badgering them relentlessly.

With a good deal of the parts available off the shelf, it would only take a reasonable amount of interest to make it a viable production reality.

Then even the eco-warriors would be able to raise a smile.

You want to buy a second-hand car.

Just something that's fuel-efficient. But it needs a bit of power – your neighbourhood's quite hilly and your groceries can be so heavy. And it's nice to have an engine that roars.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Heathens flying the flag in Sweden

DUDLEY Heathens will be flying the flag for Great Britain next month after providing no fewer than four out of the five-rider line-up for the European under-19 speedway team semi-final in Sweden.

The youngsters will be in action at Eskilstuna against the hosts, Denmark and Germany on Saturday, August 6.

Ashley Morris has been picked as skipper by the management pair of Phil Morris and Neil Vatcher.

He will be joined by grasstrack convert Tom Perry and temporary Heathens signing Brendan Johnson.

Mildenhall's Joe Jacobs completes the side with Dudley's Richard Franklin – whose knee injury prompted the move for Johnson – expected to be fit again to fill the reserve berth.

Heathens chairman Nigel Pearson said: "For the Heathens to provide three of the four starting line-up team members plus the reserve is quite remarkable.

"And I have to say it's not bad for a club which often gets accused of a win at all costs attitude.

"It underlines the fact that we are working closely with youngsters this season and for Ash to be named skipper of Great Britain Under-19s is a fantastic honour.

"Congratulations to Ash, Tom, Brendan and Rich, it's a terrific moment in their career and I hope they feel proud. We at Dudley Heathens are proud and we wish them well, along with Joe Jacobs, for the event."

Bewdley batsmen failing to hit target

Worcester (24pts) 313-6, Bewdley (4pts) 157. Worcester won by 156 runs

THIS was another demoralising defeat for Bewdley.

The home side's powerful batting line-up rattled up a large total with every batsman contributing.

Simon Mauger was the pick of the bowlers, taking 4-95 – a creditable return on such a small ground.

Bewdley's batting, missing talismanic captain Rob Combes, failed again, though Nick Wilkinson (36) again played responsibly, and there were breezy contributions from Ben Jones Jnr (38) and Gareth Lewis (32).

Bewdley were bowled out for 157, exactly half the target. Nevertheless, results elsewhere mean that Bewdley, despite their recent wretched form, remain out of the relegation zone.

Hagley (24pts) 247, Bewdley (8pts) 245. Hagley won by two runs

Bewdley seconds lost a thriller against Hagley.

Very little separated the teams on the opening day of the season and if anything the reverse fixture was even tighter, Hagley coming out on top by virtually the narrowest of margins.

Hagley won the toss and batted first and once again Ben Wooldridge took a liking to the Bewdley attack, a quickfire 70 at the top of the order taking his tally to 180 in the two games.

David Jones (4-58) dismissed Wooldridge with the score on 109 but with plenty of overs remaining, Andy Shaw (42) and Steve Rhodes (53) were able to rebuild and that pair guided Hagley to a competitive score of 247, a late flurry of wickets seeing the visitors dismissed in the 48th over.

Bewdley's top order had all been guilty of failing to capitalise on a start a week ago.

Karen's 148 wins championship

KAREN GREENFIELD won the Kidderminster Golf Club ladies championship, shooting 148 to leave second-placed Anna Rock four shots behind.

Jean Field Spoons, HCPs 28 to 36: 1 Pam Byrne78, 2 Win Brine 79.

The Alan Lloyd men's competition, played over 36 holes, and Dean Richards emerged as the winner.

TEAM MOVE UP AFTER TRIUMPH

Smethwick (2pts) 197-5, Kidderminster Victoria (20pts) 201-2. KVCC won by eight wickets

A SUPERB stand of 170 between skipper Jonathan Wright (92) and Neil Pinner (77) helped take Kidderminster Victoria to fifth place in the Birmingham League.

KVCC won the toss and invited the home team to bat on what proved to be a fairly slow wicket, writes Brian Gittins. Kidderminster were without several key players but played well with some good fielding and catching.

Their opening attack of Gareth Williams and Chris Whelan were in control from the start and with the match reduced to 50 overs due to a delayed start Smethwick struggled for runs. At the 25 over mark they had progressed only as far away as 71-2.

Mohammed Usman was bowled by Whelan for 12 and Harshad Patel was caught by Andy Kimberlin for a duck, giving Whelan his second wicket.

Waqar Ahmed and Mo Sheikh took the score up to 88, but spin had replaced pace and Neil Pinner had Ahmed out leg before for 40.

Williams and Whelan had only conceded 48 runs off their opening spell of 18 overs with Williams bowling five maidens in a row at one stage.

Faisal Shahid had been batting well, but on 60, he was out to a superb catch by Ryan Derrick to produce a third wicket for Whelan who had returned to bowling duties.

Smethwick were now on 192-4 and were soon on 196-5 when another tremendous catch by Zac Turley had Aurell Kirnon out for one, bowled by Richard Kimberlin.

The experienced Mo Sheikh was not out at the finish, having scored 70, one 6 and six 4s. His partner, Salim Ahmed had not scored.

Whelan had taken 3-61, having bowled 15 overs. Pinner and Richard Kimberlin had taken one each.

The bowling and fielding were excellent with one outstanding bit of fielding late in the Smethwick innings.

A ball that appeared to be going for a six, found Andy Kimberlin waiting on the boundary.

He leaped in the air and palmed the ball back into play. The batsman, certain it would cross the boundary, managed only one run.

Caught

Kidderminster made a dreadful start, losing the in-form Craig Wood for a duck. He was caught Wasim Mazhar bowled Sheikh.

With the score on 31 they lost a second wicket when Andy Kimberlin on 18 was caught and bowled by Sheikh.

But that was the end of Smethwick's fightback. Wright joined Pinner in the 10th over and by the 38th it was all over.

The partnership produced some brilliant scoring shots.

At the close Pinner was 77 not out, hitting nine 4s and looking in great form. However, it was Wright's "brutal assault" on the bowling that really took the plaudits. His 92 runs included nine 4s and five 6s, damaging some cars in the car park.

Mo Sheikh only bowled seven overs, taking 2-17, but some of the other bowlers will want to forget the match.

Neil Pinner and Jonathan Wright paved the way for Kidderminster Victoria's win

Sarah helps judo team to score gold

SARAH BILES helped the Midlands Senior Women's judo team to the gold medal at the British National Team Championships at the English Institute Of Sport in Sheffield last Saturday.

The five-strong Midlands women's team, who reached the final last year, again reached the final against the same team, Scotland, but this time ran out winners. Having scored several good wins in her matches on her way to the final, Sarah was up against former Junior World medalist Sally Conway, one of Britain's Olympic prospects, and for two minutes Sarah took the contest to her illustrious opponent before eventually being caught on the ground. However, the Midlands still edged out a 3-2 win to take the gold.

Charis Hancocks was in the young women's team, who also reached the final. However, despite Charis winning her match in the final, the team lost by a very narrow margin to London and so finished with silver.

Former Samurai players Sally and Rachel Moon shared a place in the junior team, with Sally competing in the earlier rounds and Rachel replacing her later on.

Younger

Meanwhile, the younger Samurai newcomers were in Coventry for a low grades competition, and did well, winning a dozen medals. Patrick Kealey and Kian Charles were in the lightest weight group, and after good early wins met in the semi-final, which Patrick won. But he lost in the final and had to settle for silver, while Kian took the bronze.

James Wall was in the next weight group up and had several wins, but missed out on a place in the final by the narrowest of margins and had to settle for bronze. Mitchell Whitmore was in the next weight above that, and did some good work on his way to a bronze.

Aiden Preedy and Joe Edwards were in the same category, and Aiden reached the final before losing to a useful player, whilst Joe claimed the bronze with a good effort.

Then, in the last of the boys red belt categories, newcomer Jake Humphreys won three contests to reach the final before losing to a very useful and heavier player, whilst Samurai took both bronzes with Andy Calloway, who produced the best throw of the day, and Kyle Whitmore, who had several good wins.

Local rivals batter Stourport hopes over promotion

Cookley 212-8, Stourport 121. Cookley won by 91 runs

STOURPORT'S promotion ambitions took a battering as they were humbled by local rivals Cookley.

A knock of 49 from Mark Bennett and Mitch Taylor's 43 helped Cookley to their total of 212-8.

In reply Stourport were undone by the tight bowling of Lee Shewry (3-19) and Danny Soley (3-20) as they were bowled out for a meagre 121 from only 33 overs.

Stourport will look to bounce back on Saturday as they entertain Birlingham at Walshes Meadow.

Stourport 246, Worcester 231-9. Draw

Stourport seconds fared better as they took a winning draw from their clash with Worcester.

Batting first Stourport amassed 246 with Tom Gloster (48) and Jim Cook (38) the pick of the batsmen.

In Worcester's reply Stourport could not prise out the last pair as Worcester finished on 231-9 to give Stourport the lions share of the points.

Kempsey 174-8, Stourport 175-8. Stourport won by two wickets

Stourport thirds stretched their lead in Division Eight with a narrow two-wicket win over promotion rivals Kempsey.

Kevin Haycock's 5-42 helped restrict Kempsey to 174-8 from their 45 overs.

In reply 54 from Alan Lockwood and 31 from Robert Pittaway helped see Stourport home with just eight balls and two wickets to spare

Feckenham 102, Stourport 105-2. Stourport won by eight wickets

The club's fourth string made light work of Feckenham.

James Harris took 4-16 as Feckenham were dismissed for 102 .

Stourport needed just 22 overs to knock off the runs, Kevin Merris making an unbeaten 63.

Stourport stage their annual six-a-side competiton on Sunday.

Stourbridge in front but fail to grab all points

STOURBRIDGE began the second half of the season way out in front in Division One but failed to claim maximum points at home to lowly Redditch.

The visitors' last pair resisted long enough to deny the leaders a win despite James Musk taking 5-58.

Nomads reclaimed the second place they lost last week by beating and overtaking Pershore.

The hosts chased to 250 to win with an over to spare as Liam O'Driscoll replied to Ciaran Sanders' 121 not out for Pershore with a score of 111, to take Nomads to within 31 points of Stourbridge.

Fourth-placed Astwood Bank were well beaten by Pedmore while Worcester clinically annihilated Bewdley by 156 runs after compiling 313-6 from their 50 overs.

In other matches Droitwich thrashed Romsley to keep them

Worcester Cricket League with Chris Marsh

rooted to the foot of the table and Oldswinford improved their chance of a top half finish by beating Bromyard.

In Division Two the lead changed hands yet again for the sixth consecutive week as previous table-toppers Coombs Wood lost at home to Colwall.

Hagley took full advantage by beating Kidderminster and now have 200 points, seven ahead of Coombs Wood and 11 clear of Colwall.

Division Three leaders Rushwick won at Enville thanks to 105 not out from skipper Mark Groves and despite 110 from Greg Tomkins of the home side.

Alvechurch thrashed Himbleton and are second but Stourport, who are third, surprisingly succumbed to Cookley's second successive win which has pulled them clear of the relegation zone.

In Division Four Tenbury regained top spot after beating Amblecote, while Social were humbled by Barnards Green and Alveley were held by Avoncroft.

Brintons lost at Martley but Canon Frome stay rooted to last place after losing in the long trip to Himley.

Division Five's leaders Bromsgrove won at Stourbridge and second-placed Old Hill defeated Halesowen.
